Itinerary

Day 1

Lady Barron Walk & Mt Field East

We leave early from Hobart and head west to Mt Field National Park. Our introductory walk is an easy 2.5hrs walk through a forest of towering tree ferns, moss and lichens leads us to the beautiful Russell Falls – one of the prettiest in Tasmania. A great introduction and “get to know you” walk.

After lunch we will head off on our second walk for the day. There are a few options depending on time and the weather. Lucky for us Mt Field National Park has a wide range of walks to offer to suit the conditions. The accommodation in Maydena is then not too far away, which should leave some time for Platypus spotting in the pools in the late afternoon.

Day 2

The Tarn Shelf, Mt Field (15.3km)

A steep drive up to Lake Dobson brings us to the start of our day's main walk, the Tarn Shelf circuit (15.3km). A bit of a climb gets us up to the small glacial lakes, or tarns, of the Rodway Range, with magnificent views over the glacier-formed landscape. From there we will walk along the rocky shelf with its small rock gardens and pools.

Once back down off the plateau the walk then changes to a more forested path for a shady afternoon.

Happy and tired after a full day we'll head back to our accommodation at the Giants Table Cottages in Maydena for a second night.

Day 3

Lake St Clair, Cynthia Bay to Echo Point (11.2km)

It's a couple of hours drive to Lake St Clair where we'll take a walk alongside the picturesque lake from Echo Point through an enchanting temperate rainforest. After a short ferry ride our walk will take us through a canopy of Sassafras, myrtle, celery- top pine and leatherwood with a wide array of mosses, lichens and fungi below.

Our accommodation for the next two nights is in the very nice cabins at Lake St Clair and we'll eat together at the Lake St Clair Lodge.

Day 4

Mt Rufus Circuit (18km) or Shadow Lake Circuit (13km)

A challenging but amazing day walking the Mt Rufus circuit awaits us! This 18km walk takes us through a wide variety of vegetation and landscapes as we make our way up to the summit of Mt Rufus. From the summit the views over the surrounding mountain ranges are sensational.

There is an option for those who want a shorter day to do the Shadow Lake Circuit. This reduces the walk by about 3 hours and cuts out most of the vertical ascent.

At the end of the day we can walk straight into our Lake St Clair cabins and enjoy a rejuvenating shower.

Day 5

Travel day - we're off to Cradle Mountain

Today is a mainly driving day, good for recovering after yesterday's strenuous walk and before tomorrow's walk around Cradle Mountain.

First stop is The Wall* – a work in progress by sculptor Greg Duncan, depicting the history of Tasmania's central highlands in a series of carved wood panels. It's an amazing feat of creativity and work that needs to be seen.

We'll stretch our legs with a walk to Donaghys Lookout before heading to Queenstown for lunch and then on to Cradle Mountain for the evening.

* Depending on the ferry timetable, The Wall visit may be on Day 3.

Day 6

Cradle Mountain (approx. 15km)

Depending on the weather and the energy levels of the group, there are a number of options for today's walk. We'll enjoy imposing mountain vistas, pristine glacial lakes, vast buttongrass plains, and an all round fantastic day of walking. This is a fairly popular park – and we'll see why!

Day 7

To the East Coast we go

Today we say goodbye to the wild mountain country and hello to the beautiful east coast of Tasmania.

We'll stop in at some lovely small towns along the way where you might pick up a souvenir or two, or enjoy the local coffee shops and bakeries. Some of Tasmania's best wineries can be found near the east coast and, time permitting, we'll drop into one or two and sample a drop.

Day 8

Cape Freycinet, Wineglass Bay Circuit (11km)

The view over Coles Bay towards the Hazards Range and Freycinet Peninsula draws us in to this iconic national park.

Enjoy a gorgeous 11km circuit walk which takes in the white sand beach of Wineglass Bay and the equally beautiful Hazards Beach on the other side of the isthmus.

After the largest part of the walk, and perhaps an icy but refreshing swim at Wineglass Bay, we head back to Swansea.

Day 9

Maria Island (12km)

There are few options today but the most scenic is a challenging but rewarding climb up Mt Bishop and Clerk. The walk is steep but the views from the dolerite columns at the summit of the mountain are sensational. The forested section of path offers delightful walking, with glimpses of ocean beyond the sheer cliffs.

For those wanting an easy day, there's plenty to explore including the Painted Cliffs, the Fossil Cliffs and the old Darlington settlement, which has seen many transformations over the years.

After our ferry trip back to the mainland we'll head south to the historic town of Port Arthur for our final night together.

Day 10

Tasman Peninsular, Cape Hauy (8.8km)

Our last walk, on the Tasman Peninsular, is nothing short of spectacular. As we've come to expect from Tasmania, there are up's and there are downs and there are absolutely incredible views to marvel at.

As we walk along Cape Hauy the promontory narrows and the views get better and better. Massive dolerite cliffs descend vertically into the ocean on either side, making this an exciting walk to finish on.

After our walk we'll head back into Hobart, arriving late afternoon.

Where do we stay?

This tour is accommodated in comfortable cabins, motels and chalets. Admittedly there is a bit of a range in the accommodation during the tour as we are in some remote places with very few options.
